The best evidence of a physician's success is the testimony of his patients. The increasing demands for my projectional services prove that I have dealt honorably and fairly with those who have consulted me I never use a patient's name without permission, though I have many hundred certificates from those whom I have cured after they had been remounted incurable. A thorough medical education, with many years hospital experience and imiliarity with the aprilic agents, a close observance of temperamental peculiarities and strict attention to hylenic management insures success, except the possible, and i frankly give the patient my eviction.

One of the Best Physicians.

I have been using Saiit's Specific in my practice for outle a long time, and I regard it the best combination as a blood purifier and tonic. It is entirely regetable, being composed of the extracts of roots which grow in this section of Georgia. I am familiar with its labtory from the time the formula was obtained from the Indians. It is a certain and safe remedy for all kinds of blood poinon and shin humor, and in the hundreds of cases in which I have used it and seen it used, there has never been a failure to cure. I have cured tood taint in with it, after I had most signally failed by the most sporoved methods of treatment with mercury and iodice of potassium. These cases have been cared over fifteen years ago, and have never had any return of the disease in themselves or in their children.

CHRISTMAS IN SONG.

A String of Tuletide Pearls from Early liable to give the colt diarrhoes. Singers and Late.
Christmas has received deserved homage

"Watchman! tell us of the night." The need and worth of a Messiah were expressed by Dr. Watts in one of the best Advent hymns:

"Flunged in a gulf of dark desnair." Man's need of a Faviour and the value of a Christ were rehearsed in one of the or a Curist were renearsed in one of the earliest extant Advent hymns, immortalized by graces of piety and poetry—the "Veni Redemptor gentium" of St. Ambrose, Bishop of Ailian, and father of Latin church poetry, who died A. D. 397. It has been often reproduced in various lan-guages. Dr. Ray Palmer's translation begins:

Among gems adorning the Advent is Thomas Campbell's hymn, beginning: "When Jordan hushed his waters still."

Recalling the time narrated by Tate and While shepherds watched their flocks by night. we are reminded of Rev. John Cawood's

'Hark! what mean those boly voices? James Montgomery's
"Angels, from the realms of glory Dr. John Keble's.

"What sudden bleze of song!" and the mated carols by Dr. Edmund "Calm on the listening ear of night;" "It came upon the midnight clear."

"It was the winter wild
While the heaven-born child

Milton then tells of the amazed shep-"When such music sweet

"Von Himmel hoch da komm ich her."
("Good news from heaven the angels bring.") Paul Gerhardt, a prince of the German realm of sacred song, wrote, over two hun-ired years ago, as Miss*Catherine Wink-worth's version begins:

"All my heart tals night rejoices,

In Charles Wesley's "Hymns and Sacred Poems," issued first in 1739, one of the best begins: "Hark, how all the welkin rings! Glory to the king of alogs! -Prace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!"

Bishep Heber voices the Christian's de "Star of the East, the horizon adorning, Guide where our infant Re-Jeemer is laid."

J. G. Holland flads the birthplace of Christ was honored, over fourteen hundred and fifty years ago, by Clemens Aurelius Prudentius, in E. Caswall's "Lyra Catholica," commencing:

"Betalehem! of roblest cities,
None can once with the compare." Christmas naturally brings joy, express y Whittier in "A Christmas Carmen": Sound over all waters, reach out from all lands, The chorus of voices, the clasping of hands

Two methods of Christmas gaiety are bell-ringing and carol-singing, as Longfel-low mentions in a translation of "A Christ-"In December ring
Every day the chimes;
Loud the gleomen sing
the streets their merry rhymes." Again Longfellow:

'And thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom
Had rolled along
The unbooken song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!" Tennyson sees:

The medieval legend of the ox and the ass recognizing and worshiping the Holy Babe, was mentioned in a carol of the fourteenth century:

"Canovit bos of sainus
Quod puer eat Dominua."

(The ox and ass beheld that sight:
The creature knew the Lord of might.)

Other Christmas legends are referred to in "Hamlet," Act I, Scene I, where Marcellus says of the Ghost:
"It faded on the crowing of the coet."
Some say, that ever 'gainat that season comes wherein our Savior's bith is selebrated.
This bird of dawning singeth all night long:
And then, they say, no spirit dare saftr abrood. The nights are wholesome; then no planets strike, No fairly takes, no witch hath power to chaim, So hallowed and so gracious is that time."

Clement C. Moore, LLD., a New York author and divine, wrote for his children one of the most popular Christmas poems, "A Visit from St. Nicholas," beginning:

"Twest the right before Christmas, when all through the house."

"Twas the night before Christmas, When all through the house." It is usually reprinted—though often wr.n.gly—every anniversary of Santa Claus. For the correct text, see Mr. Moore's "Poems," published in 1844.

Rich Men in the House.

Washington Letter.

A number of members of the present House have received large fortunes with their wives. Among these are Hitt, of Illinois; Abram S. Hewitt, of New York whose wife was a daughter of the late Pe whose whe was daugater of the inter-ter Cooper; Wadsworth, of New York, whose wife is a daughter of "Bill" Travers, the great stock speculator; Bayne, of Pennsylvanis; Stewart, of Vermont, and Frank Hiscock, of New York. Mr. Hiscock, however, has a fortune independent of his wife. Two of the Massachusetts members have large fortunes. These are Morse, who has a large clothing house in Boston, and Russell, of Lawrence, who has large manufacturing interests both in Massach setts and Vermont. William Walte setts and Vermont. William Walter Phelps, of New Jesey, is another very rich member. He is a comparatively young man, and inherited a portion of his property. Frank Hurd, of Onio, inherted a fortune from his father, and makes a large income peside from his law practice. A Faithful Sentinel.

MESSRS. FLEMING BROS.:

Sirs.—Your pills came all right, and I can say they are a good billous pill. I have used a great many pills, but I can say Dr. C. McLane's Pills, manufactured by Fleming Brothers, are genuine. And, gentlemen, you have my thanks in sending. I gave some of those pills to my neighbors for a said they did help him. He felt the next day sike a new man. He wishes me to send for fifty cents worth for him. So, gentlemen, I will do all I can to introduce Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills, manufactured by Fleming Brothers. You will find enclosed one dollar, for more of your good pills. I wish you could send me a sample of your Vermiffuge by mail. I think it will take well here. Yours, with respect,

Yours, with respect,

VM. H. DUGAN.

West Sandlake, N. Y. October 30, 11 Why is it that so many neglectooughs and olds until they get consumption? Why is it that so many died of consumption? It is because they will not come and be healed. Every one knows a sure conquerer of throat and lung diseases is Dr. Wistars Balsam of Wild Coerry, and that it can be got at any druggist.

MEDICAL.

You Cannot Buy It in the Bar-rooms. What an absurd idea it is to send a sick man, with an ailing stomach, a torpid liver, and impoverished blood, to a bar-room to swallow some stimulating stuff, and call it medicine!

An enormous amount of mischief is constantly done by men who thus trifle with themselves. Instead of healing their diseases, they make them worse. Instead of gaining strength they only acquire the dis-graceful habit of tippling.

It is a point worth noting in connection with Brown's Iron Billers, that this valuable medicine is not sold in bar-rooms, and will not be. It is not a drink. It is a remedy. It is not made to tickle the palate of old topers. It is made to heal disease. It is not made to promote the good-fellowship of a lot of bibulous fellows standing around a bar and asking each other, "What will you take?" It is a true tonic; an iron medicine containing the only preparation of iron which can safely and beneficially be taken into the system,
